SLB provides update on planned acquisition of ChampionX

HOUSTON, February 25, 2025 — SLB (NYSE: SLB) today announced that, in connection with SLB's planned acquisition of ChampionX, all applicable waiting periods under the U.S. Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 have expired, and SLB is legally permitted to close the ChampionX transaction in the United States.

In conjunction with the HSR review, SLB and ChampionX have reached a definitive agreement, conditioned on the closing of SLB's acquisition of ChampionX as well as other customary closing conditions, to sell all of ChampionX's equity interests in US Synthetic Corporation (USS) to a third-party buyer. SLB will retain its MegaDiamond business to provide polycrystalline diamond compact cutters for drill bits and other industrial uses.

The ChampionX transaction remains subject to antitrust review in other jurisdictions. In Norway, the Norwegian Competition Authority has notified the parties that it intends to continue its assessment of the ChampionX transaction via a Phase II review. As a result, SLB now expects the transaction to close by the end of the first quarter or early in the second quarter of 2025.
