Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ Schlumberger N.V. ("SLB"), Sodium Holdco, Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SLB ("Holdco"), Sodium Merger Sub, Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SLB and direct wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco ("Merger Sub"), and ChampionX Corporation ("ChampionX") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 2, 2024 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Holdco was to acquire ChampionX in an all-stock transaction by means of a merger of Merger Sub with and into ChampionX (the "Merger") with ChampionX surviving the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SLB. The Merger was completed on July 16, 2025 (the "Closing Date"). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, ChampionX shareholders received 0.735 shares of SLB common stock in exchange for each ChampionX share and, if applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ Each former shareholder of the common stock of ChampionX will take a fair market value basis in SLB common stock received in the Merger. As further described below in item 16, one possible calculation of the fair market value of each full share of common stock of SLB is $35.07, which is the closing trading price of SLB common stock on July 15, 2025, and the last trading price before the effectiveness of the Merger.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ Fair market value generally is the price at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or to sell and both having a reasonable knowledge of the facts. U.S. federal income tax law does not specifically prescribe how former ChampionX shareholders should determine the fair market value of the SLB common stock received in the Merger. Because the effective time of the Merger was before market opening on the Closing Date, SLB believes that ChampionX shareholders should use the closing price of SLB common stock on the last trading day before the Closing Date, $35.07, as the fair market value of the SLB common stock received in order to compute the amount of gain realized on the exchange for purposes of any gain recognition or basis calculations. However, fair market value is generally a facts and circumstances determination, and it is possible a different fair market value for SLB common stock could be utilized that would yield a different result. Former ChampionX shareholders are not bound by the approach described above and should consult their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences of the Merger to them.

Part II Organizational Action (continued)

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ► Generally IRC sections 1001, 1011 and 1012 are applicable. At the time the parties entered into the Merger Agreement the potential applicability of IRC section 304 was identified in the Form S-4/A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 29, 2024, however after subsequently analyzing the share ownership of SLB and ChampionX, with assistance from its tax advisors, SLB has determined that IRC section 304 does not in fact apply to the Merger.

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ► As a taxable exchange, in general, former U.S. shareholders of ChampionX common stock may recognize losses on their shares as a result of the transaction. However, each shareholder should consult their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences to them of the Merger.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ► The Closing Date of the Merger was July 16, 2025. Thus, the reportable year for the Merger for each former ChampionX shareholder should be the taxable year of such shareholder that includes July 16, 2025. Please see pages 80-87 of the Schlumberger N.V. Form S-4/A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 29, 2024, for further general U.S. tax consequences of the Merger.
